Makes sense. I think having the non-outside lawyers is fine as a first step. Will send our list and appreciate your folks gathering what they think is involved.

Louis.

Dave Klos will contact Mark and Shawn to set up a business Zoom meeting for tomorrow morning. We do not intend to have outside lawyers on the call but can if you think that would be best (we know Mark and Shawn are businessmen lawyers, and that's fine).

Please provide the list of information in advance of the call so we can be as responsive as possible.

To be efficient, the Highland team intends to present certain financial information tomorrow (subject to Fed. R. Evid. 408 and the Confidentiality Agreement) that we believe is relevant in all cases.

Please let us know if this makes sense; if so, we'll proceed.

Regards,

John

Correct. Thought that was implicit.

I assume we have the “green light” in the nothing discussed on Monday is a conceptual deal breaker?

Please confirm.

Thanks.

John,

Would it be possible to do an initial Zoom call with those people? Shawn is out of town for the rest of the week and he is needed. Maybe your side could discuss the range of information they think is involved and my two people could give their view, in anticipation of a meeting maybe next week?

Mark and Shawn are available tomorrow morning until 1:00 pm central.

I am getting Shawn's Joinder, hopefully today

This assumes, of course, that you'll give the "green light" (i.e., nothing discussed yesterday is a showstopper) in advance.

Louis,

Dave Klos, Kirstin Hendrix, and some others are available later this week to share information with Mark and Shawn at Highland's offices. Jim Seery would likely participate by Zoom.

We thought meeting without lawyers might a good first step. If that makes sense, let me know how Dave can reach out to Mark and Shawn to set something up.

Chat soon,

John
